Jeff Robinson and Bret Voisin fired a 63-70—133 to capture the 42nd Florida State Four-Ball Championship at Quail Valley Golf Club in Vero Beach on July 17-18.

Robinson, of Longwood, and Voisin, from Orlando, posted a 9-under par 63 to lead by three strokes after the first day. In the second round, the duo made birdies on holes 3 and 7 to make the turn at 11-under par for the tournament. After a brief weather delay, they came out to birdie the 17th hole and finished with a bogey on the 18th hole for a 36 on the back nine and win the Championship by one stroke. This was the first State Four-Ball Championship that they have played together.

Frank Strafacci, of Davie, and Rick Woulfe, from Fort Lauderdale, tied with Charles Walters, from Bradenton, and Len Lasinsky, of Sarasota, finishing one back from the leaders, each team shooting a similar 67-67—134. In the final round, Strafacci and Woulfe recorded an even par 36 on the front nine and had a 31 on the back nine with an eagle on the 14th hole. John Warsing, from North Miami Beach, and Michael Nealy, of Boca Raton, shot a 67-68—135, two strokes back from the Champions. Defending Champions Ben Gardner and Phil Koch, of Boca Raton, tied with three other teams finishing the event at 5-under par 139.

The Championship featured 48 teams of two playing 36 holes of four-ball stroke play in the two-day event. In four-ball stroke play, two competitors play as partners, each playing his own ball. The lower score of the partners is the score for the hole. Forty teams qualified through one of the nine qualifying events and the other eight teams earned exempt status.

What's So Different About Match Play

by Jack Pultorak, FSGA Director of Rules and Competitions

A lot! That's why there are so many "strange occurrences" that seem to happen.

First of all, Rule 2-1 tells us "a match consists of one side playing against another over a stipulated round unless otherwise decreed by the Committee." Match play is a horse of a different color compared to stroke play when it comes to Rules. Primarily, because the rights of another 88 or 154 players do not have to be defended by the Committee. It is just a match between you and I and the only thing any of the other players in the tournament want to know is who won?

Granted, the match is played under the Rules of Golf but sometimes players may not be aware of a Rules infraction. As long as they do not agree to waive the Rules but instead are ignorant of the Rules, the results of their match will stand.

For instance, if two players agree not to play a particularly difficult hole or agree to omit a couple of holes they do not like, they would be disqualified for not playing the stipulated round (Decision 2-3/3). However, if the players had inadvertently omitted a hole in playing their match, the result of the match would stand (Decision 2-3/2).

Recently, at our Match Play Championship at Indian River Club in Vero Beach, I know of one player who unknowingly played a stroke at a ball that was out of bounds. As long as his opponent did not lodge a claim, the results of the hole stand.

In another match, two players walked off the 16th green thinking that the match was finished but before the results were posted realized that they had not concluded the match. They resumed the match and went 19 holes before a winner was determined.

In fact, Rule 33-1 informs us that "certain specific Rules governing stroke play are so substantially different from those governing match play that combining the two forms of play is not practical and not permitted. The results of matches played and the scores returned in these circumstances must not be accepted."

So the next time you go out to play a match, brush up on Rule 2 "Match Play" and enjoy the day.

Remember, it pays to know the Rules. Knowing the Rules of Golf can help you win a match and enjoy the game of golf.

This is the first year the FSGA held qualifiers for the State Junior Championship. After eight qualifiers, 90 of the top junior golfers in the state advanced to the Championship. Next year, the Florida State Junior Championship will be played at Palma Ceia Golf and Country Club in Tampa and will be a 54-hole event.

As we continue to work closely with the AJGA, the Champion of the regular division receives five exemptions into AJGA events. The top five from the regular division receive three exemptions each into AJGA events and the top ten finishes will receive one exemption toward an AJGA open tournament. Additionally, the top three finishes in each age division receive a full exemption into the 2004-2005 Florida Junior Tour and the 4-10 finishes receive three exemptions into the Florida Junior Tour. Also, the top 10 finishes in the 16-18 division will be invited to compete in the Florida State Junior Match Play Invitational at Lake Nona Golf Club later this month. The top five finishes in the 13-15 division will also be invited to compete in the Junior Match Play Invitational.

Two Martinis, Golf & the Midlife

by Jim Demick, FSGA Executive Director

What ever happened to the two martini lunch and playing golf all weekend? Ah, the good old days. I'm like a lot of our members – two busy with kids, family and career to pay proper attention to the game that has always been there for me. And I missed the martini lunch generation – but those times must have had their moments!

Lately I'm afraid I have taking the game for granted. Golf is such a loyal companion. It doesn't mind that I've neglected my responsibilities to it – that I haven't hit balls in a month. Golf doesn't mind that I watch more soccer tournaments than golf tournaments – no, the game is always there and thankfully it always will be. Hell, I hardly drink anymore. Not that drinking is by any means a virtue – but it was generally accompanied by good friends and laughter. I can't afford the down time from an evening out – I've got to be at my daughter's soccer game 60 miles from my house by 7:00 in the morning and my son's hockey practice after that.

Oh, but how the game suffers... and what about people that work up at the club? What about the guys that maintain the course and the ever friendly beverage cart attendants – am I letting them down? I don't even know the bartender's name. Shouldn't I spend more quality time with those people that have dedicated their lives to providing a friendly environment at the golf course? Well, better luck next time...maybe senior golf???
