Corzilius Claims Mid-Senior Title Breaks Course Record at Orange County

John Corzilius, Englewood, wins his fourth FSGA title.

John Corzilius of Englewood won the State Mid-Senior title by seven shots ahead of last year's champion, Randy Elliott of Winter Park. From the first round when he broke the competitive course record for the Crooked Cat Course with a 64, Corzilius never gave up the lead at Orange County National Golf Center in Winter Garden.

Starting the final round nine strokes ahead of the field and putting well all weekend, Corzilius shot a 1-over-par 73 for a three-day total of 64-67-73—204. This is Corzilius' fourth FSGA title, which includes the 1994 and 1997 State Mid-Amateur and the 1997 Match Play. He was also the FSGA Player-of-the-Year in 1997.

Elliott's 2-under-par 70 helped him move up from fifth place to runner-up with a final score of 69-72-70—211. Two players finished one shot behind Elliott for a third place tie - John Robinson of Orlando (72-72-68—212) and Larry Monteith of Jupiter (68-72-72—212).

A total of 161 players competed in the event, including five former Mid-Senior champions. The defending champion was Randy Elliott who also won the Club Team Championship this year with his team from Interlachen Country Club. Joining Elliott was Doug Ritter of Davie who held the title in both '98 and '00; 1996 Champion Skip Lujack of Brandon; 1992 Champion Bruce Scamehorn of Winter Haven; and 1988 Champion Rick Spears of Stuart.

The event was 54 holes of stroke play with the field being cut to the low 70 scorers plus ties after 36 holes. Both the Crooked Cat and Panther Lake Courses were played for the first two rounds with the final day on the Panther Lake Course.

Volunteer Search

We're Looking for a Few Good Men & Women!

The FSGA needs your help! Being the state association with the greatest number of golf courses in the country is terrific! But, it requires us to have a great many trained and willing volunteers in all parts of the state, also. This is where you can help!

We are "looking for a few good men, and women," who are semi-retired or retired and have some time they would like to devote to volunteering for FSGA events. The opportunities would include course rating and measuring, working on tournaments and/or being a rules official. Training will be conducted locally by FSGA staff and other volunteers, and uniforms will be provided by FSGA.

Broward, Brevard and Dade County are areas where we would like to add to our growing number of volunteers. Let us know if you know someone suited for a rewarding pastime and who will respond to this need and gain from the experience.

We are counting on you, or possibly the pros at your club, to let us know of quality persons with an interest in golf, and willing to join the ranks of FSGA volunteers for the "good of the game".

Email a reply with names and email addresses or phone numbers, or feel free to call Marcia Morris at FSGA, 800-741-8616, to discuss candidates for this development.

Leetow Wins State Match Play Championship

Runner-up Matthew Lemma, Champion Mark Leetow, and FSGA President Mallory Privett.

Sarasota's Mark Leetow defeated Matthew Lemma of Trinity for the State Match Play championship title at Lake Jovita Country Club. This is Leetow's fourth state title. In 1998, he won the State Mid-Amateur Championship and was the State Amateur Champion in 1997 and 1995.

During the final round, Leetow won holes 11, 12, and 13 to change the momentum in his favor and went from being 2 down to 1 up. He halved the 17th hole with Lemma to close out the match 2 up with 1 to play.

The original field of 96 players was broken into a Championship flight of 32 players and four additional flights of 16 players.

Winning the first flight, Michael Hirsch of Orlando defeated Jeffrey Rine of Winter Springs 3 and 1. Hirsch competed in the U.S. Amateur Championship last month at Oakland Hills Country Club in Bloomfield Hills, Michigan. He posted 78-75 the first two days of stroke play, which was not enough to advance to the match play rounds.

Ryan Hritz, Apopka, won the second flight 2 and 1 against Michael Roscoe of Palm Beach Gardens. The third flight winner was Justin Sams from Cape Canaveral who outplayed Valrico's Phillip Johnson 3 and 2. Dennis Modrak, Sarasota, won the fourth flight 1 up against Jason Lusk of St. Petersburg.

Lemma and John Hewlin of Bradenton earned co-medalists honors for their low scores of 70 shot during the stroke play seeding round.

DISNEY HOSTS PARENT-CHILD CHAMPIONSHIP

Parents, grandparents, and their children played in the annual Parent-Child Championship last month at Walt Disney World Resort in Orlando. The event was divided into three divisions: a Junior Division for children ages 6-11, a Regular Division for children 12 and older, and a new Professional Division where golf pro's played with their children or parents. A total of 156 teams participated.

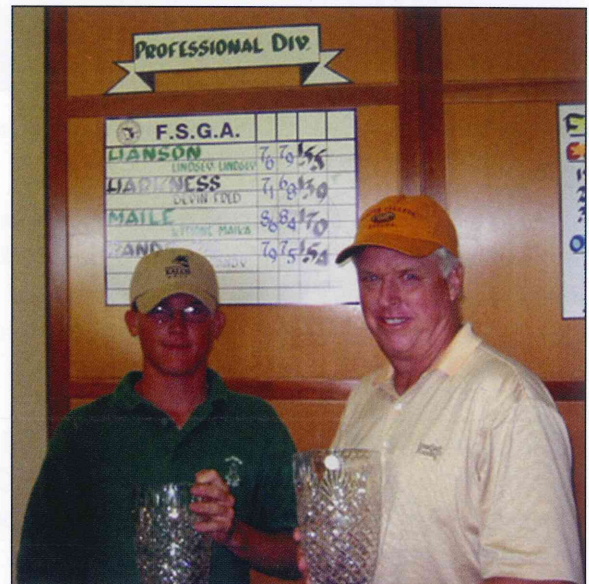

In the Regular Division, a playoff determined the champions. Bruce and Scott Scamehorn of Winter Haven and Tom and Matthew Lyons of Lakeland each came in at 139 for their two-day totals. On the third playoff hole, Scott Scamehorn made a 15-foot putt for birdie to win the hole and claim the 2002 title. Bruce is also a past FSGA champion - he won the State Mid-Amateur in '93 and the Mid-Senior in '92.

The Professional Division title went to Fred Harkness and his 16-year-old son Devin Harkness, both of Jupiter, after they posted 71-68—139. Fred Harkness is the Director of Golf at Jonathan's Landing Golf Club.

The Junior Division played 9 holes each day and used the Stableford points method where points are awarded in relation to par. Brendon and Andrew McCarthy of Hobe Sound scored 53 points to win the age 6-9 flight. Scott and Diana Davis of Pembroke Pines won the age 10-11 division by 6 six points when they finished at 32-31—63. Eleven year-old C.J. Andriole of Orlando made news on Saturday when he shot a hole-in-one on the second hole at the Oak Trail executive course. He received a Walt Disney hole-in-one plaque for his achievement.

Matthew and Tom Lyons, Lakeland, and Regular Division Champions Bruce and Scott Scamehorn, Winter Haven.

Professional Divionship Champions Devin and Fred Harkness of Jupiter.

Improving on their sixth place finish last year, Scott and Diana Davis of Pembroke Pines won the crystal this year.

C.J. Andriole of Orlando with his Hole-In-One plaque from Walt Disney World. C.J. and his father Joseph finished third in the Junior 10-11 Division.

The GHIN Connection

Mike Antunes
Director of GHIN &
Handicapping

What is GHIN?

GHIN (Golf Handicap & Information Network) is the handicap service endorsed and serviced by the USGA and FSGA. It is the most advanced, reliable, and widely used system in the country.

Why should my club use GHIN?

By using GHIN, you are supporting the FSGA. Our primary source of economic support comes from distributing and supporting the software. Without it, we are out of business.

Secondly, GHIN is networked with clubs across the country, enabling you to post scores at any GHIN club you play.

The software also includes a Tournament Pairings Program that helps golf professionals effortlessly run events.

How much does it cost?

The system costs your club about $10 per member per year.

How does GHIN help keep handicaps accurate?

GHIN members are able to post their scores, as well as view others members' scoring records at www.ghin.com. Scores of any GHIN user in the country can be viewed through this site. GHIN.com assists in the "Peer Review" process and ensures players are posting accurate scores.

Who do I call at the FSGA to sign up on the GHIN system?

Please call Mike Antunes or Aaron Skoviera at (813) 632-3742.

Dropping the Ball Correctly Can Save You Strokes

One of the fundamental parts of taking relief in the game of golf requires dropping the ball. Too many times I have seen people drop it incorrectly! It's really simple, yet often done incorrectly.

Rule 20-2a states that "A ball to be dropped under the Rules shall be dropped by the player himself. He shall stand erect, hold the ball at shoulder height and arm's length and drop it. If a ball is dropped by any other person or in any other manner and the error is not corrected as provided in Rule 20-6, the player shall incur a penalty stroke."

By Jack Pultorak
Director of Rules & Competitions

First of all, the player himself must drop it. Neither his caddie, nor his partner or his partner's caddie or anyone else can drop it. If anyone other than the player himself drops the ball, it is a one stroke penalty and the ball is in play.

Secondly, three conditions must be met by the person dropping the ball in order for a drop to conform with the Rules:

1. He shall stand erect. No squatting down or bending over at the waist.
2. The ball must be held at shoulder height. Not at your knees so it doesn't plug in the bunker or above your head so that it bounces and rolls more than two club lengths.
3. The ball must be held at arm's length. No more over the shoulder; that started in 1908 and disappeared from the Rules in 1984. You may face any direction you wish and hold the ball in front or to the side. As long as the three conditions above are met.

As mentioned earlier, if the ball is dropped by any other person or in any other manner, you still have a chance to correct your error. This is one of the few times in the Rules of Golf that gives you a "do over" without incurring a penalty and is covered by Rule 20-6.

Rule 20-6 states that "A ball substituted, dropped or placed in a wrong place or otherwise not in accordance with the Rules but not played may be lifted, without penalty, and the player shall then proceed correctly. This Rule is sometimes referred to as the "Eraser Rule."

Remember, dropping the ball is simple if you just follow the Rules of Golf. Knowing the Rules can help you save strokes and enjoy the game of golf.
