

JACKSONVILLE DUO WINS FSGA STATE FOUR-BALL CHAMPIONSHIP

July 27, 1997

TARPON SPRINGS -- Jacksonville's David Anthony and Steve Dodson followed their first round 63 with a final-round 67 to win the Florida State Golf Association Four-Ball Championship at Innisbrook Hilton Resort today. Defending champions Randy Briggs and Daniel Owen of Ocala finished two strokes back in second place.

Sarasota's Mark Leetzow and Nick Devito finished tied for third with Orlando's Joseph Andriole and Robert Weaver. Both teams finished at 134.

The four-ball format has two competitors play as partners, each playing his own ball. The lower score of the partners is the score for the hole.

TWO TEAMS LEAD THE FSGA STATE FOUR-BALL AFTER ROUND ONE

TARPON SPRINGS, Fla. -- Rick Kerper (Safety Harbor) and Stuart Sierra (Tampa) teamed for a 63, as did Jacksonville's David Anthony and Steve Dodson, to lead the Florida State Golf Association's State Four-Ball Championship at Innisbrook Hilton Resort today. Defending champions Randy Briggs and Daniel Owen of Ocala are tied for third with three other teams with a 65.

All six teams posted their scores on Innisbrook's Sandpiper course. The Island course is also being used, but scores were higher. The top score from the Island course was Orlando's Joseph Andriole and Robert Weaver with a 66. Teams will switch courses for the final round tomorrow.

Teams start tomorrow at 7:30 on both courses. The leaders will begin at 9:30 in the morning.
